

PRIME MINISTER • PREMIER MINISTRE

2023

Dear Friends:

I am pleased to extend my warmest greetings to everyone celebrating Chinese New Year.

Chinese New Year, also known as the Spring Festival, is a time to reflect upon the memories and accomplishments of the past year, and to look forward to new beginnings. This year, Chinese communities in Canada and around the world welcome the Year of the Rabbit, a symbol of longevity, peace and good luck.

For the past two years, celebrations have looked quite different due to the COVID-19 pandemic. As family and friends come together once again, this occasion is also a chance for all of us to recognize the many contributions that Canadians of Chinese descent continue to make to our country, and to learn more about their rich cultures, customs, and traditions.

On behalf of the Government of Canada and my family, I offer my best wishes to all those ringing in Chinese New Year.

Sincerely,

The Rt. Hon. Justin P. J. Trudeau, P.C., M.P.
Prime Minister of Canada
